

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4.

FOLGER.

Praisos and Adverse Criticism on His Letter of Acceptance.

Caustic Comments Made by Carl Schurz and George William Curtis.

The Various Attitudes of the Principal Papers in the Metropolis and Elsewhere.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Secretary Folger's letter of acceptance and Mr. Hepburn's refusal to remain on the Republican state ticket were the two topics which engrossed the attention of all politicians to-day. It is not exaggerating the condition of things to say that for a while a feeling of consternation and disgust predominated in the ranks of the Republican party. The good effect which it was expected Folger's letter would have in quieting the opposing factions was more than neutralized by the unexpected course taken by Mr. Hepburn. Instead of matters being simplified, they have become more unpleasantly complicated than ever, and the only persons who profess to be satisfied with the present condition of affairs are the Democrats. In all places where politicians are wont to assemble and exchange views on current topics, Hepburn's declination was severely condemned. All except the most ultra of the Half-breeds admitted that Folger's letter was a document which only a statesman could have written. It was sound, logical, and met the issues squarely. To those who objected to it on account of its great length, it was replied that it was necessary to clearly define the position of the Republican party in the state. This could not be done either effectively or clearly in a short, condensed letter.

"Hepburn," said a Republican politician to-day, "has signed his own political death-warrant. It's a clear case of suicide, though manifestly not so intended. The party can overlook mistakes, but treachery never. You may think it harsh to call Hepburn's decision treachery, but I don't know of any milder term which will properly describe it. What ever may have been his original intent, he has pursued in making his nomination for governor, a course which even a pretense that there was anything unfair about Hepburn's nomination." The reason he gives in his letter is, therefore, truly transparent. He knew that by withdrawing from the ticket he was condemning the chances of the entire ticket. He withdrew nevertheless, and betrayed the party, which, by reason of his long silence, had every reason to believe that he would stick by it to the last.

The members of the Republican state central committee admit that Hepburn's course was a surprise to them. They could not account for it, except on the ground that he had been offended in not having been promptly notified of his nomination. Some very plausible opinions, similar to that already quoted, are also to be found in the executive committee's report, making this action to consider Hepburn's withdrawal from the ticket. It was decided to have a meeting of the state central committee next Thursday, when the vacancy will probably be filled.

PRESS OPINIONS.

Mr. Carl Schurz says in the editorial column of The Evening Post: "Mr. Folger will probably, in the course of time, come to the conclusion that had he written Mr. Hepburn's seven lines withdrawing from the ticket, instead of his own three columns, it would have been better for the party. He would then have been a single man, and could easily be called a statesman. As soon as possible medical aid was brought from Hutchinson to care for the wounded. The dead were conveyed to that place to await further orders for the disposition of the bodies."

DEATH ON THE RAIL.

Frightful Railway Accident at Salem, Kan.

Six Persons Killed and a Number of Cars Wrecked.

ARCHERSON, Kan., Oct. 4.—Monday evening about 6:30 o'clock a frightful accident occurred on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad at Salem, a switch station about nine miles from Hutchinson, and 218 miles west of here. Passenger train No. 6, coming east, was running on time, and took the side track as usual to await the arrival of the Cannon Ball, going west. The latter was also on time, and as it approached the station gave the customary whistle, but did not slacken speed. It was then running at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour, and never, under any circumstance stopped at Salem. By some oversight the switch was misplaced, and the west-bound train, instead of passing on the line, ran on to the side-track. The engineer saw the blunder, and in a second reversed steam and applied the brakes, but it was too late to materially slacken speed. The passenger train followed. The two engines were literally crushed to pieces, as were also the baggage cars. The passenger coaches suffered little injury. With the noise of the bursting steam came the shrieks of the wounded. It was soon discovered that the engineer had been killed, and he was carried with his body to the station. The two men who were able came crawling out of the debris with an estimate of the actual injury could be ascertained. It was soon found that five men had been killed outright, and one so seriously injured that he died in an hour or two afterwards. The engineer of the Cannon Ball—the engineers of both trains, Westhead and Fisher, Mr. Holiday, the baggage-master, and the two firemen, whose names could not be learned. One of the engineers was found with his hand still on the throttle, and the engine continued to run visible through the smoke. Mr. Schurz, a carpenter of the road, was fatally wounded, and died in about an hour.

The passengers were fortunate, considering the nature of the accident. None of them was seriously injured. Many received slight injuries, and none could seriously be called injuries. As soon as possible medical aid was brought from Hutchinson to care for the wounded. The dead were conveyed to that place to await further orders for the disposition of the bodies.

DELAWARE.

Returns From Yesterday's Election Indicate the State Has Gone Republican—A Democratic View.

Dover, Del., Oct. 4.—There are sufficient official returns to warrant the assertion that Delaware is gone Republican by a small majority. Newcastle and Kent counties give Republican majorities, while Sussex gives fifty Democratic. This is a gain of about 1,000 in the whole state, and insures Republican success in the November election, which will give a Republican governor, legislature representative in congress, and a Republican senator.

HAZELTON and KEYES.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 4.—The Republican conference failed to induce Hazleton and Keyes to withdraw. The former at last consented to leave his cause with the twenty-two delegates who nominated him, and they will be called upon to determine the ticket. It is believed that Hazleton will be forced to withdraw; and, if so, he will be nominated by the Rock Island, Lucas, Lincoln, and Rock Island committee, his mother this afternoon, to consider Hepburn's withdrawal from the ticket. It was decided to have a meeting of the state central committee next Thursday, when the vacancy will probably be filled.

Health and Keyes.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 4.—The Republican conference failed to induce Hazleton and Keyes to withdraw. The former at last consented to leave his cause with the twenty-two delegates who nominated him, and they will be called upon to determine the ticket. It is believed that Hazleton will be forced to withdraw; and, if so, he will be nominated by the Rock Island, Lucas, Lincoln, and Rock Island committee, his mother this afternoon, to consider Hepburn's withdrawal from the ticket. It was decided to have a meeting of the state central committee next Thursday, when the vacancy will probably be filled.

Press Opinions.

Mr. Carl Schurz says in the editorial column of The Evening Post: "Mr. Folger will probably, in the course of time, come to the conclusion that had he written Mr. Hepburn's seven lines withdrawing from the ticket, instead of his own three columns, it would have been better for the party. He would then have been a single man, and could easily be called a statesman. As soon as possible medical aid was brought from Hutchinson to care for the wounded. The dead were conveyed to that place to await further orders for the disposition of the bodies."

L. & N. STOCK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The stock of the Louisville & Nashville railroad seems to be the best in Wall street. One of the Gould papers represents that the road requires $470,000 per month to meet its interest obligations, and is only $341,000. The annual meeting of directors will be held to-day at Louisville. It was generally believed that no stock will be issued to raise money to pay necessary outlays.

The Commercial Advertiser.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The letter of the Toledo, Ohio, railroad company has constructed less than thirty miles of track, instead of 400 called for by the grant, and the Mexican government has declined the concession forfeited. The bondholders held a meeting here yesterday, and appointed a committee of seven to represent them. It is proposed to appeal to the United States government for protection.

Gulfport's Poisoned Bouquet.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Professor Tilden reports that the bouquet given Gulfport by Mrs. Sewall contained over five grains of white arsenic—an overdose, which would have resulted in death.

Festivities at Newport.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Bancroft, the historian, celebrated his 75th birthday to-day. Entertainments were given in honor of Attorney General Brewster, who returns to Philadelphian Thursday.

A Strike.

DAYTON, Oct. 4.—Three hundred carmen at the coal mines at Wellston, Ohio, have struck for an increase of twenty cents per day, cutting off one-third of the supply of Dayton and intermediate points.

Fatal Runaway.

JACKSON, Mich., Oct. 4.—Morris Knapp, a well-known horse-dealer of this city, sprang from a carriage to avoid injury by the runaway team, and suffered a severe concussion of the brain, from which he soon expired.

Egypt.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—General Welsley is expected to arrive October 22. The khadi is to decorate the colonel and three other officers of each British regiment engaged in the late campaign.

The Austrian Census.

VIEENNA, Oct. 4.—The recent census shows the population of the Austrian empire to be 22,147,211.

Are You?

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but his nomination is. That nomination was proffered by the author of the present article, the right of the right," but trained in the best and highest statemanship of nation and state, familiar with the two always difficult work of putting broad thoughtful views into good "working legislation." He never did, also, serve the people of the state, as the recipient of a lavish bestowment of their confidence than he has given to any other man of either party, with an unmeasurably record behind him as the interpreter of his declarations. As might have been expected of a bold and honest man, he faced without fear or flinching the gloomy convention friends that have been so dishonestly manipulated and misrepresented in the interest of general calamity and chaos, in the torso and mastiff style that so fully comes from a man entirely devoid of the cordiality of a true patriot, to weak and inimical nobodies. He never did, also, serve the history of the frauds effected only the single matter of the recommendation of his state committee as to a temporary chairman, and that did not affect a single vote in the convention, and that preliminary skirmish in its proceedings."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—George William Curtis, in a letter to the secretary of the New York civil service association, says: "Judge Folger's ability and character are not in question, but

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4.

The circulation of the GAZETTE is larger than that of any other newspaper in Rock County.

RAILROAD TIME TABLE.

Chicago & Northwestern.
Arrive.	Depart.	Arrive.	Depart.
From Chicago, Rockford and Beloit.....	12:20 P.M.	From Chicago, Rockford and Beloit.....	3:50 A.M.
From Chicago and Beloit.....	12:40 P.M.	From Chicago and Beloit.....	11:00 A.M.
From Chicago and Beloit.....	12:45 P.M.	From Chicago, Rockford and Beloit.....	1:15 P.M.
From Winona, Madison and all points in Minnesota.....	10:35 A.M.	From Winona, Madison and all points in Minnesota.....	1:15 P.M.
From Winona, Madison and all points in Minnesota.....	10:35 A.M.	From Winona, Madison and all points in Minnesota.....	1:15 P.M.
From Winona, Madison and St. Paul, Dako- ta and Minnesota points.....	1:20 P.M.	From Winona, Madison and St. Paul, Dako- ta and Minnesota points.....	2:20 P.M.
From Beloit.....	9:20 A.M.	From Beloit.....	9:10 P.M.
DEPART.
For Chicago, Rockford and Beloit.....	9:10 A.M.	For Chicago, Rockford and Beloit.....	2:20 P.M.
For Winona, Beloit.....	1:20 P.M.	For Chicago, Rockford and Beloit.....	3:50 A.M.
For Chicago and Beloit.....	1:25 P.M.	For Chicago and Beloit.....	12:40 P.M.
For Madison, Winona and Dakota.....	11:35 A.M.	For Madison, Winona and Dakota.....	12:30 P.M.
For Madison, Winona and Dakota.....	11:35 A.M.	For Madison, Winona and Dakota.....	12:30 P.M.
For Madison, St. Paul and Minnesota points.....	1:20 P.M.	For Madison, St. Paul and Minnesota points.....	2:20 P.M.
For Madison, St. Paul and Minnesota points.....	1:20 P.M.	For Madison, St. Paul and Minnesota points.....	2:20 P.M.
DAILY.
—DAILY except Monday.		—DAILY except Monday.
At regular trains daily except Sunday.		At regular trains daily except Sunday.

M. HUGGETT, Gen'l. Super.
General Passenger Agent.

WANTED—A compositor at the Gazette's Job Rooms.

THE LARGEST and finest assortment of Hair goods ever brought to Janesville, can be seen at Mrs. Williams' Saddlery, Opera house block.

The Janesville Guards' Cadets are ordered to be present at the Armory, Thursday evening, at seven o'clock, to prepare for turning out Friday. By order T. Judd.

O. R. Dahl teacher of violin and harmony will be in this city Fridays and Saturdays. Will also give a good course on guitar and viola. P. O. address, Beloit, Wis.

Mr. E. Hall, has just returned from the East, with a large and fine stock of millinery goods, which he is now offering at reasonable figures. The stock is made up of all the newest designs, the eminence of fashion having been levied upon by Mr. Hall, to supply his customers. Ladies should not fail to call and examine the beautiful collection.

Fox sale cheap, three first class residences situated on East Milwaukee street Janesville. No better location or more desirable property can be found in the city. H. H. BLANCHARD.

Andrew Kentzler, Madison, Wis., says: "I consider Cole's Veterinary Gasoline the best preparation in the market. I have used it in my stables during the past winter, and find it all that it is represented, and heartily recommend it to all horsemen as being far preferable to any other preparation for general use. It will cure any case of scratches. Found cans, $1.00; small cans, 50 cents."

Close the Doors.

We, the undersigned, dry goods and millinery dealers of Janesville, Wis., agree to close our respective places of business, on and after October 9th, 1882, at 7 o'clock p.m., (Saturdays and from December 9th to January 1, 1883, excepted) the following rule to be adopted by all—all doors to be locked at 7 o'clock p.m., and no customer admitted afterwards.

ARCHIE REED,
J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS,
THOMAS LEEDY,
M. C. SMITH,
T. J. CATRIN,
E. H. CLYDE & CO.,
JOHN ROBERTS,
MRS. M. CANNIFFE,
MISS KATE CLARK,
MRS. M. E. HEWITT,
ROSSON SISTERS,
M. C. H. BOYS,
HENRY F. THOMPSON,
ROSEVELT & THOMPSON,
MCKEY & BROS.,
MURKIN McCULLAGH & CO.,
E. HALE,
M. E. WOODSTOCK,
E. DOWLING.

LOCAL MATTERS.

$1500 per year can be easily made at home working for E. G. Ridout & Co., 13 Barclay Street, New York. Send for their catalogue and full particulars.

PERSONAL! TO MEN ONLY!
The VOTAGE BELT CO., Marshall, Mich., will send Dr. DYE'S CELEBRATED ELECTRO-VOLTAIC BELTS AND ELECTRIC APPLIANCES ON TRIAL FOR THIS AUTUMN. They are a great success and will benefit all men. They will restore health and kindred troubles, guaranteeing speedy and complete restoration of health and manly vigor. Address as above. N. B.—No risk is incurred, as thirty days trial is allowed.

Mother! Mother! Mother!!
Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use it in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere 25 cents a bottle. marie-mun-wed-sat-32ndy

A HOUSEHOLD FAVORITE.

Cole's Carbolisalve

Is the Best External Remedy Known.

It will immediately relieve the pain of Scabs and Burns and cure the worst case without leaving a trace.

IT POSITIVELY CURES

PILLS, FEVER, SORES, INFLAMMATION, ULCERS, CROPS, CHAFES, CUTS, WOUNDS, BRUISES, CHILDREN'S EPILEPSY, ITCHING, RASHES, AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN AND SCALP.

It is a black salve with the letters green. Small boxes, xcc.; large boxes, 75c.

Cole's Carbolisalve

is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all druggists, mercifully slow.

Is cleaning, healing and refreshing; free from all impurities, and is unequalled for the Toilet and Bath. Prepared by C. COLE & CO., Black River Falls, Wis.

Sold by all